PLSA PINNACLE

INDEPENDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

The PLSA's main purpose is to help everyone achieve a better income in retirement. We are working to get more money into retirement savings, more value out of those savings, and building the confidence and understanding of savers. You too are striving to improve retirement saving standards. That is quite a challenge and you need people who will understand the pensions and lifetime savings market. Our team draws on the PLSA's policy and research expertise, and is supported by specialist partners, where necessary, when delivering specific projects. We will work closely with you to make sure that we tailor our services to give you the most appropriate solution.

Finding the right level of support which is cost effective, independent, up-to-date and follows best practice is essential. PLSA PINNACLE is exactly placed to offer this.
